Summary: Double plays-Gondolff to Quinn. Left on bases-Richmond, 4; Newport News, S. Time of game, One hour and forty minutes. Umpire, Norcum.

Newport News Shipbuilders drilled into town yesterday from Petersburg, where they met three successive shut-out defeats, and it was plainly writ on Manager Matthews's face that he was not going to stand for such treatment at the hands of the

That he did not, is evidenced by the score 3 to 2, written on the boards in favor of Newport News. Paxson went to the mound for the visitors, and he had the control which allowed him to make the breaks come at the proper place. As it was, the Colts had two good opportunities to place men across the rubber, but the place men arross the fusion, but the batsmen were unable to connect. Pax-son furnished the only break in the quietness of the afternoon, when, after striking out three times, he stepped to the plate in the ninth inning and drove the sphere into right centre field drove the sphere. One man was already stolen bases as Geyer and Quinn, and Smith's draw of a pass gave the visi-tors two runs in the sixth and tied the score. The winning run was made when Tarleton hit to left, advanced to second on Geyer's out at first, and scored on Smith's hit to left. Smith was called safe at second by Umpire Norcum. Shortstop Newton said something which the umpire dis-liked, and Newton was sent to the clubhouse. Charlie Strain went to Umpire Norcum.

port, not an error being made on either side, though the outfielders made several hard tries and were success-

The only double play of the game was made by Gondolfi and Quinn, and it was the result of mistaking two out when in reality but one Coit was out. The play was pulled off in the fifth. The play was pulled off in the fifth. Piez had drawn a pass and was anchored at second and Mace on first. If Griffin hit a high fly to Gondolfi, and Piez being given the hit and run signal, continued around snird, Göndolfi hand-ed the ball to Quinn at second and completed the play.
